

7th Grade Newsletter

January 2018

What We have been Covering:

The 7th Grade group has been learning a lot! My goal for them is to be ready to enter into the Catholic religion and be able to apply our knowledge to real life situations. We have been learning about Jesus' time on earth and the beginning of the church. Also, we have been learning about vocations, saints, and the Magisterium.

Coming Up!

In the weeks to come, we will be talking about Lent and the Seven Sacraments!

Parents!

I ask all of the parents to do your best in bringing your children to church every week and encourage you to talk about our
