Pastor's Corner

Think about the meaning of these words from the 13th-century writer Meister Eckhart: "The kind of work we do does not make us holy, but we make it holy. ... As we have the divine being within, we bless each task we do, be it eating or sleeping or watching, or any other [task]."

Keith Miller, a businessman and author, decided to take the "unseen Partner" with him to work. Consciously he decided he would take Christ's presence with him throughout the day at the office. To remind himself of the divine being within, he prayed every time he walked to and from the drinking fountain. As he walked through the offices and spoke to people, he prayed for them. As a piece of paper came across his desk, he committed it to God. He said he noticed no outward change in his attitude, but some of the love and concern he had for these people must have communicated itself to them. People began to come to him to talk about their inner lives. Being conscious of God's presence can have a profound impact on your job, and the people around you.

Thank you!

This is the eighth winter that Ss. Mary and Joseph has sponsored meals and collected toiletries for SOS Homeless Shelter. Thank you to all those who contributed or supported this project in any way! With your help, we served some very delicious and nutritious suppers. Special thanks to those who helped with food preparation/delivery: Ann Wubben, Linda Wood, Margaret Reeves, Clark & Barb Jillson, Judy Hussey, Pat Sweet, Susan Millard, Denise (Dave) Boente, Shannon Boente, Kevin and Tracey Kreipe, Rosemarie Rhodes, Keith Woods, and Dennis Young. Also thank you to the K of C's for slaw, St. Vincent De-Paul group for the donation of leftover soup, Prairie Farms for milk, and the creative 3rd grade PSR class for decorating bible verses and wrapping them around the utensil bundles. All shelter staff and guests were so very appreciative of the kindness shown by the people of our parish. God bless!
