Pastors Corner

In The New York Times (October 13, 2018), religion writer Jonathan Merritt reports that it's getting harder and harder to talk about God. According to a recent Barna survey, more than three-quarters of Americans do not often have spiritual or religious conversations. Six in 10 say that they have spiritual conversations only on rare occasions. A meager 7 percent of Americans say that they talk about spiritual matters regularly. But here's the real shocker: Practicing Christians who attend church regularly don't do much better than the general population. Only 13 percent of these people have a spiritual conversation about once a week. So why do we struggle so badly with God talk? Jonathan Merritt says that today, "work often takes precedence over worship, social lives are prioritized over spiritual disciplines and most people save their Sunday-best clothing for Monday through Friday." Americans also feel conflicted about talking openly about their faith. The Barna survey reveals that many people believe that spiritual conversations create tension or arguments, and some are concerned by the trend to politicize religion. A smaller number don't do God talk because they don't want to appear religious, sound weird or seem extremist. Pentecost is the opposite of this. No matter what would happen to them, the apostles were willing to boldly proclaim the good news.

"Lunch Bunch" is a free summer lunch program held at the Macoupin County Housing Authority in their recreation hall. Anyone who comes for a meal will be served. St. Mary & Joseph Parish is asked to help the week of June 17-21. We will be greeting the guests, serving lunch, and cleaning tables etc. We need five volunteers each day. Please contact Susan Millard at 217-854-4060 if you can help.

For those of you who are interested and able to help keep our church grounds looking beautiful, we will be working in the flower beds the first Wed. of the month at 5:00p.m. thru out the summer so June 5th will be our first. All help is appreciated.
